Submit your questions live on the call in the Zoom Q&A field. We will pick and choose the best the questions to answer.

There are many students on this call, all at different points in their publishing journey. We receive many questions and do our best to choose the ones that are applicable and helpful to the majority of attendees on this call.

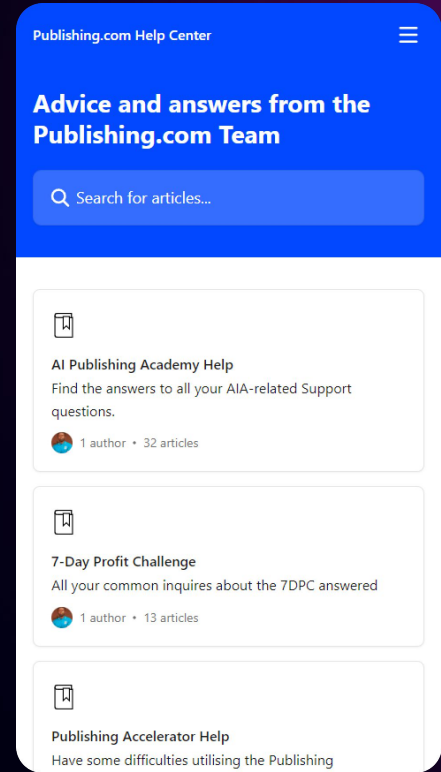

We would rather spend more time going deep into a good question rather than rushing from one question to the next. Therefore, we will pick and choose the best questions.

Hi coaches! Hi Coaches,

I just had my book formatted with UBF in 24 hours!, and I have a few questions:

My manuscript contains 30,206 words, but after formatting, the book is only 112 pages instead of the expected 120-140 pages. Is this normal/ok?

I can't seem to open the .epub file. UBF recommended using Calibre, but it requires payment. Are there any free alternatives I can use to view it?

While reviewing my PDF file, I noticed that the mid-review page spans two pages. Shouldn't it fit on a single page? Do you know why this might have happened?

What information do I need to provide the designer for my paperback and audiobook covers?

Should I give them the word count from my manuscript (30206K) or the 112 pages from my formatted book?

Thanks! Thanks in advance for your help!

I feel stuck in the program. Since I watched the POC class I have been searching for a POC and I have not found it. I have been searching since 2023 and I must be doing something wrong. It feels that every topic is already saturated with recently published books that don't meet POC. Can you help me get started? Also, I don't want to put my name as an author of a random topic book, what tips do you have if I find a POC that I don't want to be associated with that topic?

Hey coaches, I'm wondering if there is a training on the best ways to use pubby in one of the modules? Also I'm in Canada and it looks like I can't review books from amazon.com? I'm looking for how to work around that. Thanks!

Yacoba Quaye

Hey coaches, follow up question about pubby. I'm trying to purchase the books pubby from amazon.ca instead of amazon.com but it gives me an error message "This title is not currently available for purchase." I'm wondering how people from different countries use the service

Greetings,

Once I upload this my completed files to KDP, I copy the new link to the book, and then make a QR code for the review page. At this point, can I go into the KDP file directly and just paste this in there, or do I need to send this file to the formatter have them re-do the manuscript? I hope it's the former; ultimate formatting takes 5 days for revisions.
