I am really at a crossroads in the program, I only have access to an iPad, and I need to get past this roadblock. I need an alternate way to get research for my book topic... via kdspey and DS Amazon quickview. So is there a long way to gather information online or are there other iPad software that will get me into this? I have done a google search and I am not sure what is compatible with my situation? I only have access to an iPad because I have ALS and the iPad allows me to communicate in person and online like I am doing with you right now. Thank you for your understanding and help...

How can I apply for LLC to start the business?

Karen

I had my manuscript formatted by Publishing Services at 5.5 x 8.5 trim size, and it looked great when I reviewed the file.

And just to be safe and also out of curiosity, I had 3 copies printed (through LuluPress) to see how it would look and feel.

I got it back, and the font size looks really big compared to other paperbacks of the same size.

Could you please advise me on how to fix this? And what is a standard font size that you advocate?

Thanks!

Frank

Has anyone worked with Marvel ghost writing? I gave them a bunch of money but just haven't trusted them.

Plagiarism Check

Dear Coaches, My GW has completed the draft writing. I tried to do a plagiarism check via Grammarly Premium. Most of the chapters have 13 to 15% plagiarism rate. Is that a concern?

I provided the feedback to the GW and she said she also did the check. She said "My worry is that it's the headings you had in your outline.. they matched the exact ones used in the research sources. I had this concern as I was writing but used them anyway because it was what the outline suggested. I use my own premium (paid) plagiarism checker and it's pulling up 0% (I can send you the results if you'd like) but it doesn't pull headings like grammarly does. "The copy checker I use is typically far more reliable than Grammarly which is why I pay quite a bit for it each month. The other writing issues I will check; I pay for Grammarly premium as well and none of these issues came up during my revisions, but since you are in NZ we might have ours on different settings from each other as well."

My check result doesn't show headlines are a problem. It is the first time for me, I don't know why the difference. How to handle and proceed please? Thanks

Hi coaches! I'm new to the course and have been researching topic ideas. I would like to do a book on pregnancy. When I look for POC for "Pregnancy Guide" I believe it just about meets POC at 3 books, however, the rest of the books on page 1 have a lot of reviews. Should I be concerned about the amount of competition with high review counts? Do you think "Pregnancy Guide" meets POC or is the term too broad? Thanks in advance!

How do I format and publish a Children's book or board book (with illustrations) on KDP?
Words and Illustrations are ready to go, it just needs put together and published! Outsource on Upwork?

Anna

I have a manuscript already written (by a GhostWriter from 2021) but I never did anything with it. I'm wanting to use this manuscript as my first book/audiobook in this program, however, I don't have a title for it! The book is in the niche of weight loss and how I've kept it off over the years. When I listened to FREEDOM SHORTCUT, the advice given by one of the Mikkeleson twin's was to title the book no more than 2 - 5 words. I'm having a problem with that since I'm thinking of titling my book 6 words - Weight Loss Maintenance for 50+ Women. Does that title sound appealing or not? Thank you!
