OPEN Q&A

Submit your Topic or Proof of Concept questions live on the call in the Zoom Q&A field. We will pick and choose the best questions to answer.

The logo consists of the letters 'FYI' in a bold, white, sans-serif font, centered on a blue rectangular background that has a slightly distressed or torn-edge appearance.

There are many students on this call, all at different points in their publishing journey. We receive many questions and do our best to choose the ones that are applicable and helpful to the majority of attendees on this call.

We would rather spend more time going deep into a good question rather than rushing from one question to the next. Therefore, we will pick and choose the best questions.

I have found POC for the topic of emotional regulation, but have also found it for emotional regulation for kids and have that as my 30k book topic. I want to make sure that I have done POC correctly, as in this topic there are also workbooks or workbooks with activities in them....just want to make sure I'm comparing apples to apples. Does that make sense?

I did also run a customer research report on publishing,ai for this topic, and it looks amazing!

Thank you!

Is it recommended to do a workbook and would you consider that to be included in the proof of concept? What is your opinion on bible study guides and would that be recommended or something to stay away from as it is religion.
