OPEN Q&A

Submit your questions live on the call in the Zoom Q&A field. We will pick and choose the best the questions to answer.

The logo consists of the letters 'FYI' in a bold, white, sans-serif font, centered on a blue rectangular background that has a slightly distressed or torn-edge appearance.

There are many students on this call, all at different points in their publishing journey. We receive many questions and do our best to choose the ones that are applicable and helpful to the majority of attendees on this call.

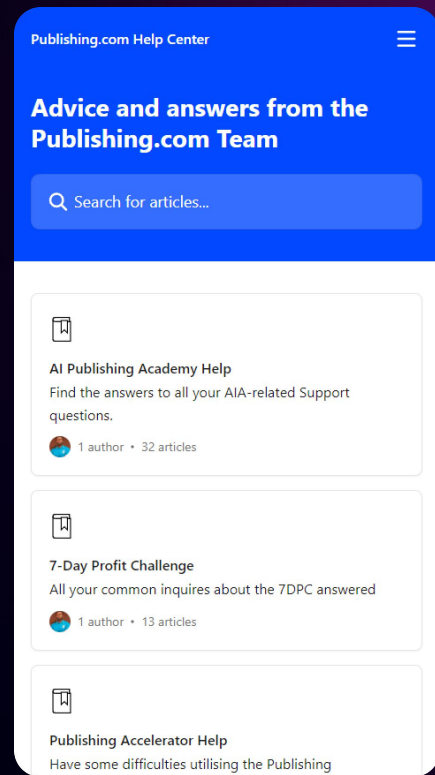

We would rather spend more time going deep into a good question rather than rushing from one question to the next. Therefore, we will pick and choose the best questions.

I have a published book that has 61 great reviews and Amazon impressions but isn't selling. I think I need to try a new cover. I attach some options in the google doc and would love some advice. I tried to line them up on one page but couldn't do it.

Do I register for copyright first, or do I submit my published work to Amazon first?

The trademarks material covers searching the US trademark database for trademarks. Do you have to check a different database for each country you publish in and do you have links for these trademark databases?

Please help me with a final cover for my bathroom reader/coffee table reader type book of facts. I aim to have a quirky, humorous, and unique cover that will attract a potential reader or buyer to my book.

I really like the quiriness of these and am wondering about your thoughts.

#1 - Napoleon on the toilet/loo - since this is a bathroom reader he's on the toilet reading

#2 = Napoleon on a chair/throne - showing him reading in a chair instead

#3 - Random historical guy on chair reading

Hello, coaches. Should I work with audiobook network or ACX? The difference between the two is that audiobook network does ALL of the work for us and all we have to do is pay them the money. ACX, on the other hand, requires me to do all the work but I don't know how to, and still pay their narrators. Also, do you have any low-cost narrators?

I'm working on my 7DPC book to get it published. The table of contents Reedsy prepared is incomplete. It didnt take the entire chapter's title, instead it ends with "...". how do i get this fixed?

I am an actual medical doctor. I want to use my real name and credentials. I think it could help my brand as a mental health and burn out prevention advocate. Books In mental health have past proof of concept. I have assistants. Is there any reason I should not use real name

Pamela buchanan

Can I use my time to generate concepts and books while an assistant gets the reviews, book covers and uploading done. I want to see what happens if I go extra hard and focused I'm a doctor and many of the things I looked up met proof of concept

Katherine Ayars

Is there a prompt to put into ChatGPT to generate the customer research report? I just watched Module 3 again, and I still don't understand how to generate the report. Thank you!
