Book Topic Question:

On the Top 100 Book Topics Resource, there are a number of mentions of Cookbooks and Recipe Books, whereas in some of training videos it's mentioned to avoid the 'Cookbooks' niche.

Please advise if Cookbooks and Recipe Books are recommended for the POC exercise? And if YES, how do they qualify for the 30K category?
Also, is this possible to create Audio Books out of these?

Thanks!

Tim 1 of 3

Greetings Coaches!

Would you please check to see if the book topic "generative AI for beginners" passes POC?

I am basing my POC investigation on the four books listed below (which you should see in KDSPY).

Due to the 500 character limit for each each question, please see my 2 specific questions, each submitted separately.

(71 reviews) "Artificial Intelligence & Generative AI for Beginners: The Complete Guide"

(46 reviews) "AI Made Simple: A Beginner's Guide to Generative Intelligence"

(27 reviews) "Generative AI for Beginners: The Ultimate Guide to Understand Generative Models, Craft Artificial Intelligence-Driven Art, and Elevate Your Tech Projects with Hands-On Tutorials"

(15 reviews) "GENERATIVE AI - Comprehensive Guide for Beginners: Mastering Artificial Intelligence, Deep Learning, and Business Applications with ChatGPT"

Tim 2 of 3

Regarding the issue of whether the book topic “generative AI for beginners” passes POC:

Question 1 of 2:

For each of the four books listed previously, in recent days the monthly revenue reported in KDSPY has been fluctuating. Usually it is above $500/mo, but sometimes it can dip below. I’m not sure what it will show during tomorrow’s Q&A call. If it passes POC during the Q&A call, can I move forward with this topic even if the monthly revenue dips below $500/mo in the coming months?

Tim 3 of 3

Regarding the issue of whether the book topic “generative AI for beginners” passes POC:

Question 2 of 2:

For each of the four books listed previously, I have read the book descriptions and online samples, and I believe that, regardless of how the book titles and subtitles are worded, they are all written on the same topic and for the same audience (beginners). That is to say, each book begins with a background section on Artificial Intelligence IN GENERAL, followed by one or more sections on Generative AI IN PARTICULAR. Would you agree?

Alisha Kapani

I've picked a book topic and would love your feedback on it! I picked "divine feminine"
