OPEN Q&A

Submit your questions live on the call in the Zoom Q&A field. We will pick and choose the best the questions to answer.

The logo consists of the letters 'FYI' in a bold, white, sans-serif font, centered on a blue rectangular background that has a slightly distressed or torn-edge appearance.

There are many students on this call, all at different points in their publishing journey. We receive many questions and do our best to choose the ones that are applicable and helpful to the majority of attendees on this call.

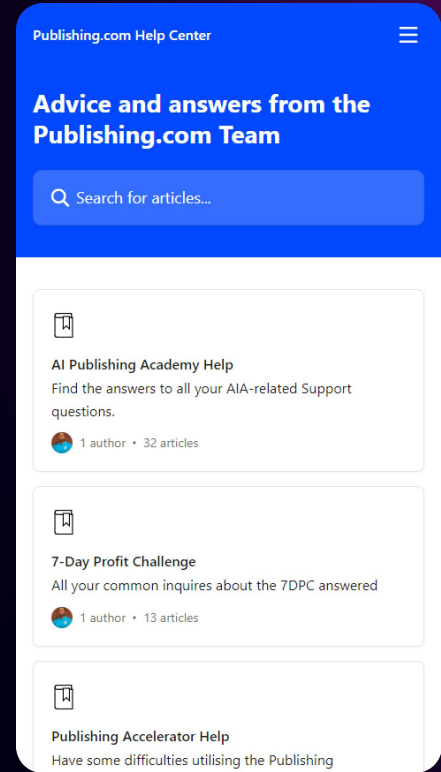

We would rather spend more time going deep into a good question rather than rushing from one question to the next. Therefore, we will pick and choose the best questions.

I have a topic with 9 qualifying POC's...I did see that I have 5 that are just Seniors and 4 are for Over 60. Should I split this into two different books?

Hi Coaches, I tried to upload my book on IngramSpark but they said my ISBN cannot be transferred to my account because it's owned by KDP. What should I do now? Thanks in advance

Philip de Jong

The research generated for my topic has missing content which I will need to create and add into the manuscript. I have created several ai Researches but content was still inadequate and needs to be written by me and added. The ai produced section and mine will have a different style of writing. My question is, once these two are combined and copied into ai for finalisation, will ai be able to adapt the same writing style throughout?

Darian Sinclair

Hello, I am writing my second book, and I am on editing and proofreading + looking at any information that may be plagiarized, there is a newish feature at least that I have never seen that says "AI text detector" Is this something that we need to be checking as well?? Do I need to go through and reword everything to help it not sound like AI wrote it?

How do I find the answers to fill out the form when I check for AI-sounding content or check for Plagiarism? There is a reference page at the end of my book, but no corresponding numbers in my text. I expected it to be set up as a bibliography. How do I find the needed information? I appreciate your help.

Hi Coaches, The QR code I put in my book was generated by qr-code.io and it was working ok at the beginning but now it has been deactivated and they want me to pay for a monthly subscription. I originally tried QRcode-monkey.com but unfortunately it doesn't seem to work on my PC - after I enter the book's URL, it just keeps looping and it never generates the QR-code. What should I do? Can you recommend a PC friendly QR-code generator we can trust? Help please! My book is out there and the QR-code in it is going nowhere.

Paula Jo

Hi coaches,

I am considering the following topics for my first book. Which do you think would be the best one to choose as my first book? I realize they are on a similar topic and could easily be turned into a bundle, but I don't know which one I should do first.

Wilderness Survival Skills for Kids

Off Grid Survival Projects

Philip de Jong

In the manuscript itself, if during its editing process any content were shown to be inadequately described and needing additional text in the manuscript itself, would that additional section be converted into the writing style of the manuscript or will it be left as written? The two are certain to be different in style otherwise. When ready, I am planning to have my manuscript checked over by some experts who are bound to come up with additional content worthy of addition. Thank you.

Hello - my topic needs detailed research and outline. have produced 5 research reports, each needing additional details. I have distilled the 5 into one which altogether now contains the right amount of detail. Will I be able to paste this hybrid research report into ai, which then will be the basis for the outline?

Dear Coaches, I would love your feedback on the cover designs (I know pen name needs to be at the bottom, font size equal /smaller than subtitle). I want to stand out from the majority of books on this topic - most are very grey and/or very "spiritual." By the way, I have been an art director for major consumer and financial service brands for several decades, and feel the colors blue with accents yellow/orange could be effective for this book. It's in my creative brief. Target audience is "everyday" people, not just spiritual: <https://99designs.com/contests/poll/8f64b00e36>

Thank you! Judy

Hello coaches, I want to change my existing book cover to see if it'll improve my sales. The first cover is the old one and the second is the new one a Fiver designer submitted. Can i get your thoughts on this?

However, I asked the designer to give me a different concept (maybe something without teens on the cover smiling). What do you think about that as well?

I am brand new to AIA and I am having a lot of struggles. I even signed up for the 7 day challenge, but have not made it past Day 2. I printed the cheat sheet but I still have difficulty moving forward. I cannot even get back to the lesson where the library is located, I am hoping to find the progress form but no luck as yet. It's beginning to look like the course is not for me, too advanced for people like me. Thanks for your reply..

Pamela Williams

Hi, For my first 30k book, I am at a stand still with sales and 35 reviews. Should I change my cover perhaps? I did the 99designs contest, but went with my own design (both my coach and I liked mine better). The link is both covers. The one with one bulb and puzzle piece is the 99designs. The four blue bulbs is mine, which is published.

And if I change the cover, how does this work with the A+ content that is already done and ads etc. Seems like a lot of work and money to change up

Hi Coaches Karina and Brian, I need to run the Title and Subtitle by you. What do you think of this?

Parenting Boys with ADHD: 7 Practical Tools to Help Your Neurodivergent Child Improve Focus and Attention, Boost Academic Success, and Build Meaningful Social Skills.

Bonus: Self-Care Tips for Parents, Simple Checklists, Worksheets, and More!

This is my 2nd book. For my 1st book, I had 3 benefits and all that good stuff, but in the hindsight I realized it had no REAL keywords that were relevant to the topic. After attending so many more coaching calls, I think I can do better this time. (For reference: The Dementia Caregiving Guide: Empowering techniques to understand and manage symptoms with compassion, enhance quality of life, while maintaining your own well-being).

I guess we keep learning and getting better. Thanks for all your great work and input!

Hello Coaches,

I hope all is well. Here are the 6 best book covers I selected from a contest on 99designs. Please help me with recommendations to pick the best one and, eventually, any suggestions for the designers to finalize my book cover. Please find the link to the covers below.

Thank you for all you do.
