Please run these Chat GPT title ideas through KD Spy for me. I want my title to include the words “The Sequence” because the exercises are done in sequential order and are followed by a plunge.

- The Sequence: Unlocking Wellness with Sauna/ Steam Stretching and Plunge
- The Sequence: Unlocking Wellness with Stretching, Sauna, Steam and Plunge
- The Sequence: The Art and Science of Stretch Sauna, Steam, and Plunge.
- The Sequence: Achieving Zen with Stretch, Sauna, Steam and Plunge.
- The Sequence: Unleash the Power of Stretch with Sauna, Steam and Plunge.

In the Proof of Concept video using KDSpy the instructor never chooses more than books 1-20.
Why don't you include more books?

Hi, i am writing a poems for my 7DC is that okay or it has to be a book?

Edward

How can you generate an AI content book without any input as a writer? Isn't that taking risks with regards to copyright infringement and crossing the line with regard to ethics in publishing?

Rigoberto

my 30k book is live. Can I get some feedback on my cover?

Rigoberto

Please take a look at my cover. I did it through 99designs but I was not 100% happy and I really wanted to publish my book. Do you think I should leave it as is or what Can help me understand if I have to be concerned about it. It has been 3 weeks since launch, 60 reviews, started ads and selling about 1 book per day. Hi! I am working on my first 30K, now waiting the outline to be back. I am thinking on making a workbook for it too. Do you suggest we should wait until the 30K is a success, then follow up to publish workbook? OR, we should publish it alongside anyway, may be do a bundle too? I have seen people "using" other author's bestseller book title and made a workbook for it. I don't want that happen so I am thinking to do it first. Please advise how we should handle the workbook for our own title. And do you recommend to use PS to do the workbook's outline?

Hi. I have a few questions. First, my first book is about to go live. Hooray! I requested proof copies from Amazon. The first one had some formatting issues, so I worked with Publishing Services to get that fixed. When I requested the second round of proof copies, the formatting looked better, but the images in the book looked significantly worse than they did in the first round of proof copies. They were quite noticeably less crisp and clear-looking. Any thoughts as to why this would be?

Second question: can you review do's and don'ts with who can leave reviews on Amazon? I know it can't be immediate family or anyone that you've sent packages to through Amazon since they can track that. However, what do I need to be aware of as far as friends, co-workers, acquaintances, etc.?

Last question: Once I launch, I'm looking to quickly create a journal to go with my wellness-related travel book. I have no idea where to start. Do you have thoughts or suggestions on how to get started on my journal? Thank you!

Pepper

(You may already have my q, but can't find where it has been answered). Good news: my first 30k word book went live on Amazon about a week ago. Currently have 217 verified purchases and almost 60 reviews. Good start, HOWEVER, Amazon Ads declined and won't run ads due to the policy on the title claiming healing of a malady or disease. Title: 5 Keys to Healing From Trauma: a simple guide to process pain and get your life back. Is there any way to appeal this? Work arounds? Other marketing avenues if no go on Amazon ads? Is it worth considering a title change (which in turn would require re-working the manuscript, reformatting, new cover design, etc..). Please help!

I need real color photos for my gardening book, which is currently with the writer at TUW. My contract says that 20 images are included. Does the writer locate these images and ensure they are not copywritten so I can use them? TUW Admin has not responded to this question. I have looked on iStock, Pixels, and Pixabay for "free" images but am not finding much of what I want. On Fiverr you can order charts or AI images, but I don't see where to hire someone to find non-copywritten photos I can use. Is there another service that will find me photos I can safely use? Thank you!

Hi. Which Q&A day do we go over titles, subtitles, and book covers? Thanks :-)!
