- Establishing Proof of Concept for your book topic

*** General questions will resume on the next Q&A. ***

OPEN Q&A

Submit your Topic or Proof of Concept questions live on the call in the Zoom Q&A field. We will pick and choose the best questions to answer.

The logo consists of the letters 'FYI' in a bold, white, sans-serif font, centered on a blue rectangular background that has a slightly distressed or torn-edge appearance.

There are many students on this call, all at different points in their publishing journey. We receive many questions and do our best to choose the ones that are applicable and helpful to the majority of attendees on this call.

We would rather spend more time going deep into a good question rather than rushing from one question to the next. Therefore, we will pick and choose the best questions.

TOPIC RULES :)

- Each student is allowed to submit two topics for proof of concept (POC) testing by coaches.
- If a student submits more than two topics, the two most “specific” topics submitted will be considered for POC testing.
- This approach ensures that more students have the opportunity to receive feedback on their topics
- As coaches, our goal is to develop your skills, enhancing your comfort and confidence in navigating the proof of concept process.

When I first logged in to the site I was asked to enter a topic and was presented with a number of options. I watched the associated video, then I got a message that the topics needed "proof of concept". Today when I first tried to log in I got a message that I entered the wrong password and followed the instructions to change my password. When I logged in with the new password, I was taken to a library containing a number of instructional videos. I found this very confusing.

Hi Coaches,

Would you kindly give your feedback on my topic & title ideas:

Topic; Self-Help, Stress Management. POC: 3/3

Title #1: "Calm Under Pressure: A Mindful Approach to Stress Management and Emotional Regulation. Discover How Mindfulness & Emotional Intelligence Can Transform Your Stress into Strength"

Title #2: The Stress-Less Mind & Body Guidebook: Unlocking the Power of Mindfulness & Emotional Intelligence for Lasting Calm. Practical Strategies to Manage Stress, Enhance Resilience and Create Balance in a Busy Life" Thank you!

Julie Singer

General Topics for POC evaluation. Thanks in Advance! Topic 1 - Heal or transform your relationship with money. Topic 2 - Overall, the topic is Healthy Relationships. Something like - Healthy Communication for a Healthy Relationship, or Healthy Relationships Through Better Communication: Building Trust, Connection, and Love. And if you have time for one more Topic, I'd love to get your thoughts on Dad Jokes.

Can you see if "Money Management for Young Adults" and "Money Skills for Teens" passes POC? Is Money Management for Young Adults and Personal Finance for Young Adults be considered the same topic for POC? Also, how can I tell if a topic has become too competitive even though it passes POC? Thanks!

Terrie Huberma

If I came across a book topic that had excellent POC and I knew nothing about the topic, so I couldn't contribute, add knowledge, or wisdom to the book, should I still create/publish the book? It could make me $ but I've got no knowledge or attachment to the topic. Does it matter.

If yes, is that an appropriate time for a pen name in case I didn't want to be obviously associated with the book?

Caitlin Pomerantz

Many low-review authors are still authorities on their topic, how to account for that? When considering POC should you disqualify books by people who have a large audience and/or high level of education or certification in their arena even if they don't have a high number of reviews?

Is AI good at creating workbooks or exercises? What's the difference between religion and spirituality in terms of categories in book publishing? i.e. why is spirituality recommended but not religion?

How come there are cookbooks in the recommended topics when modules say don't do cookbooks?

For Proof of Concept do you search in only the first 20 results from KDspy, or more? How many ASINs do you recommend on customer research?

Caitlin Pomerantz

I'm interested in writing about Norse Mythology. Broadly, the topic has POC. AI customer research indicates there's a potential market for books specifically addressing how to use Norse Mythology for self-improvement. There aren't any books specifically on Norse Mythology for Self-Improvement right now, so would that topic meet POC?

Daniel G

ALoha Dani & Manya, etc... and thanks soo much for ALL your previous help!

I have done topic research for over 6 weeks and have run POC for close to 200 topics and have found maybe 15 different ones that have verifiably met POC with confirmation from coaches and using all the methods taught by you good people. HOWEVER, I am NOT satisfied enough with what I have found for numerous reasons.

MY QUESTION:

I know I am asking about something you don't normally recommend but since I have definitely decided to buy either Publisher Rocket or Bookbeam to help me.... Which one of those two would you most recommend to me and why?

Halima Adediran

Dear Coaches could you check these topics for PoC please?

1. Mindful parenting
2. Healing trauma
3. Cognitive behavioural therapy
4. Toxic relationships

Many thanks.
