The logo consists of the letters 'FYI' in a bold, white, sans-serif font, centered on a blue rectangular background that has a slightly distressed or torn-edge appearance.

There are many students on this call, all at different points in their publishing journey. We receive many questions and do our best to choose the ones that are applicable and helpful to the majority of attendees on this call.

We would rather spend more time going deep into a good question rather than rushing from one question to the next. Therefore, we will pick and choose the best questions.

I am still having a hard time with POC. I looked up vagus nerve and I got back upgrade your vagus nerve, simple exercises to stimulate the vagus nerve, The vagus nerve reset and Chakras and the vagus nerve. Does this pass POC? or are these not really targeting the same audience?

When I searched vagal breathing I got another 2 titles. 1) Daily Vagus Nerve Exercises and 2) the Vagus Nerve, Your Body's Superpower Do these add further POC? I can understand how book #1 doesn't give POC because its not about the Vagus Nerve and more about exercises I can do on a daily basis but would book #2 contribute to POC for Vagus Nerve together with the 4 titles I submitted earlier?

I picked my topic by following the "Proof of Concept" lessons. I ruled out Trademark but I am not sure what it means in module 2, lesson 8, time stamp 15:22 for action steps "Make sure not banned from running Amazon ads" What does that mean? The topic I picked is "Guidance and Comfort After Loss" Can you let me know if this is a good topic and should i move on to the next step? It had 6 books with < 150 reviews, and with good revenue.

I need help regarding POC: I want to write a bullet point guide from PREGNANCY to GIVING BIRTH AND POSTPARTUM and I struggle on what topic to type to test my POC as those are 3 different topics. How shall I proceed for POC?

I know we do not take into considerations books with more than 150 reviews but do I have to be concerned if my topic (pregnancy, postpartum, motherhood) has many books available with A LOT of reviews (3k, 12k, 30k)?

Victoria

What category would my book be placed in if it is about motherhood from pregnancy to post partum for first time moms? The best selling titles have GUIDE, POSTPARTUM and PREGNANCY in them. This is what I have been trying to use as POC but I am worried about doing my POC wrong and also competing with best sellers. Would it be a good idea to focus on mental health / emotional guide for first time moms? Use this as POC and take this focus instead? What would you recommend :) (Post partum mental health is a topic but I want to include all the process from the beginning). I would say my target client are moms.

These questions are intended for the POC Q&A call. Great work BTW!

I'm considering the following topics for my first book. I believe all meet AIA's POC criteria.

Please confirm my proof of concept work. Also, please comment on why I might choose one topic over the others based on these factors or any other factors you may suggest. Thanks!

Greg (2 of 3)

1. Number of titles meeting the POC criteria within the KDSpy list
2. The volume of books sales of the qualifying titles included in the POC (e.g., iphone 15)
3. Whether the books need diagrams (e.g., gardening or exercise books)
4. Ease of reaching 30,000 words (e.g., gardening or exercise books)
5. Ability to publish in audiobook format (e.g., exercise book)
6. When color is needed (e.g., forager's guide)
7. Age of the books of the qualifying titles included in the POC (e.g., iphone 15 when a new one is coming out in the fall, other books are still earning but are more than 2 years old)
8. Other factors?

Greg (3 of 3)

Possible Topics

1. iphone 15 for seniors
2. Chair Yoga for seniors
3. Raised bed and container gardening
4. Emotional Intelligence

What are the steps to research and develop a topic of my own that will meet the POC requirements but is not listed on the AI topic spreadsheet?

Hello coaches...I am still on my POC search. Does any of these pass POC; 1.Spirituality, 2. Spiritual Enlightenment, 3. Christian Spiritual Growth? Thank you.

E.P.

I'm still new, just in module 2. Please test the example below!

Does POC currently pass for zodiac signs? (I checked and thought yes)

Does POC pass for self love for women? (I checked and thought yes)

Am I right that these are both not specific enough?

So can I combine it?

Topic: Self Love for Women

POC: : Self Love for Women

POC: Zodiac Signs

Title : Self Love for Women through astrology:

subtitle: meditations, affirmations and action steps based on your zodiac sign

Many thanks, y'all are AWESOME!

Yozefu

I'm having a lot of hard time nailing a topic that passes POC, for weeks now. Sometimes I seem to have gotten it, and when I check it the next day the figures are all changed and it doesn't pass anymore! Any tips?

Thanks.

Alter

I'm doing topic research and I'm a little unclear on something. On the one hand, one of the examples in the course for a topic that passes POC is gut health and yet there are a lot of sub topics within gut health. there is gut health for woman which doesn't pass POC, but if you take any book with gut health in the title it does pass but each one is slightly different than the other. for example, one is for beginners, another is about natural remedies and the third about the microbiome. And despite all of this it is implied in the course that it passes POC. On the other hand, it is emphasized later on that if it doesn't fit the exact key words don't pass it. So what do I do for more general topics like gut health or self love etc. Do I say that's not specific enough of a book topic? or what? I would appreciate anyones thoughts on this. Thanks
