OPEN Q&A

Submit your questions live on the call in the Zoom Q&A field. We will pick and choose the best the questions to answer.

The logo consists of the letters 'FYI' in a bold, white, sans-serif font, centered on a blue rectangular background that has a slightly distressed or torn-edge appearance.

There are many students on this call, all at different points in their publishing journey. We receive many questions and do our best to choose the ones that are applicable and helpful to the majority of attendees on this call.

We would rather spend more time going deep into a good question rather than rushing from one question to the next. Therefore, we will pick and choose the best questions.

Hi Coaches,

Would it be practical to use AI voiceover software like Revoicer for audio recordings? I'm unsure if publishing.ai is developing similar software or if Amazon allows this, though I heard they might have their own AI tool for this purpose.

Thank you!

Darian Sinclair

What are your thoughts on amazon reviews? I am on pubby doing 3 reviews a week before my book launches at the end of next month! I have heard of paying a significant amount of money and outsourcing 100 reviews at a time from somewhere? I thought it was on pubby.. but I don't see that option! I don't have a lot of people I know that are reading my book before hand for free in exchange for a review. about 25 people and I am sure not all of them will actually review!

Is there a way I can outsource this?

Reverse Diabetes in Weeks

How to control your spikes, eat healthy, Shop on a Budget and Lose Weight with Ease, getting conflicting comments from FB group, have title and subtitle get comment that it is good but then others say it will have issues with advertising. title does have POC and has dr and NFP with same title. Will this be a issue down the road or will it be ok?

R. Wayne Lapidez

Hi Coaches,

Publishing.ai initially generated a References section for our manuscript, but after extensive editing, some references might no longer apply. Should I review and update the section or leave it as is?

Thank you!

How can I create engaging infographics on a tight budget? I know services like Fiverr can help, but I can't afford them right now. What are some affordable or free alternatives?

Carla Rodrigues

Can you look at this for a 7DPC Title/Subtitle?

Ida Jarkiewicz

Hello again, Thank you for a very pleasant meeting! I am currently editing the text and reviewing everything Grammarly has identified in the manuscript provided by Publishing.ai. However, I'm wondering how I can make the text more personal in a good way. I'm not a native English speaker, and I find it challenging to add to or remove text from the original manuscript while maintaining the same quality.

I recently received an email from publishingservices.com offering me a $50 discount code to use to purchase a plan package from "DoneForYouKDPReviews.com". Is "Done For You KDP Reviews" a legitimate company? And does Publishing.com recommend we use their services to get our FB reviewers for our books?

Kevin Wallace

I know it was covered in one of the modules but just want some clarity. I'm on the editing portion of my book and in brackets is (SOURCE 1). Is it best to copy and paste reference 1 into here and decrease the font size? or Delete this reference as it is now included in my reference page?

I would love some advise on my Title and Subtitle options for my upcoming book.

1. Entrepreneur's Guide to Machine Learning: Revolutionize your business by harness the power of machine learning
2. Cutting Edge Guide to Machine Learning: The dream of integrating machine learning into your business model
3. Machine Learning Advantage: Strategic insights into continuous innovation

Let me know if any of these are effective at showing the benefits of buying my book.

While writing this book another has come to mind. I'm wondering how proof of concept works with children's books considering they are largely imaginary characters with some sort of teaching incorporated?

I have narrowed down my covers to a final 3. Could you please provide some feedback? Thank you so much and Merry Christmas! I also submitted with attachments to support@publishing.com as for some reason this appears to not have worked last time I submitted a question.

I've narrated audiobooks previously and already have an ACX.com account as a narrator under the email address I want to use to publish audiobooks, but ACX says you can't switch your account role after registration. Should I just use a different email address or can I have both a narrator and rights holder role?

Hello coaches I am seeking feedback on my book title:

Thank you.

What should I do with an Amazon ads keyword (manual campaign, exact keyword) if there is 1 sale but out of 8 clicks and the ACOS is around 33%? I have other keywords with much better ACOS but this particular keyword gets lots of impressions... my breakeven ACOS is 35.56% and so I actually paused ads on that keyword for now, is this a good idea?

Ken Gordon

I have POC, and generated my customer research. As I am reading through it, I find I would like to add additional information. Is it okay to add my own experience to the research before running my outline?

I have sold about 80 coloring books so far in the last two weeks. I added a QR code in the book with a short message for customers to leave a review on Amazon. I however have received none so far. My book is rated 4.7 stars at 24 reviews (from Pubby)

I wanted to know what are the strategies I can use which can help me get verified reviews on Amazon? Shall I ask maybe twice in the book (beginning and end) to submit review on Amazon?

Thanks!

With AIA's proven system for helping people earn side income by publishing books, what potential obstacles might prevent individuals from achieving their goals? Additionally, what key pitfalls should I avoid during the process?

I am a month into the program, and I am researching on a book topic right now. Seems like I have at least 3, but I wanted to ask about this: the topics I have chosen are not new to me, I know a little bit about each, but I'm not an expert on either of them. For instance I went with one of the topics and ready to create a book, do you suggest I also do my own research on this topic so I can create a really good quality content? Or how do you go about it, what is the standard procedure? Please advise. Thank you.
