How many proof of concepts topics (module 2) should I have before I call to setup my first coaching call?

I am having trouble with getting a log in for KDSPY, I have emailed them they have not responded, except for a auto reply that was 2 days ago.

Hi, I'm navigating the new landscape of Amazon ads, and was going to start adding negative exact keywords to the test campaigns that have been running for almost three weeks now. Then I recall it being mentioned by a coach that Brian (Ad Master) has said NOT to add negative exact KW. Any thoughts?

Hey Cody and Co-Host! I have a question about the Lead Magnets and bonuses. I know the main Lead Magnet goes in the front of the book, however, how are the bonuses delivered? And what format are they supposed to be in? Are they downloadable PDFs? Or only web-based documents, such as an excel spreadsheet (if that's the route one would go). Hopefully this makes sense and thanks for all you do!!

Hi guys, I am working on hiring a ghostwriter through Upwork. The job has been posted and several individuals have replied however none of them look like they will not perform very well. Do you have any suggestions in moving forward? Thanks.

Another Question. I've had a suggestion to use Atticus software for formatting since I use Windows and can't use Vellum. Would this be a good choice? Thanks.
